

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, a collective of inspired peers has chosen this day to honor Bernard Wade Carr with an Appreciation Banquet; and

WHEREAS, the Commissioners of Bridgeville recognize Bernard Wade Carr's lifelong contributions as a cherished resident and dedicated public servant to the community; and

WHEREAS, Bernard Wade Carr has served over the years for the Town of Bridgeville through the Bridgeville Historical Society, Friends of the Bridgeville Library, Bridgeville Senior Center, Heritage Shores Military Club, and photographer for countless community events; and

WHEREAS, Bernard Wade Carr has served over the years for the Woodbridge School District as a supporter, photographer, and creator of the Carr Family Scholarship; and

WHEREAS, Bernard Wade Carr has also served in many other capacities in various community organizations, including but not limited to Delaware State University, Morning Star Publications, the NAACP, Rotary Clubs, Mount Olivet United Methodist Church, Mt. Calvary United Methodist Church, Sussex County, and many other community organizations and individuals that cannot possibly fit within the limitations of one proclamation.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commissioners of Bridgeville call upon all citizens of the Town of Bridgeville and nearby positively influenced communities to recognize, honor, and celebrate the mutually shared benefits of a life of service and dedication of Bernard Wade Carr.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Town of Bridgeville to be affixed this 20th day of May in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand, and Twenty-Two.

Thomas F. Carey
COMMISSION PRESIDENT
