PUBLIC COMMENT:

Eleanor Bennett, 310 Edgewood Street, states there are a lot of changes to town, she is concerned with students walking town streets as there is a missing stop sign on Edgewood Street. Ms. Bennett states the alley behind her home is overgrown and there is a tractor trailer parked on S. Cannon near the Villas; she would like Code Enforcement to do a better job at enforcing these violations. She discussed kids walking through her carport late at night, and would like animal control to patrol town.

Shanon Schafer, 109 Edgewood Street, discussed code violations she has seen in town, such as, overgrown alleys and uneven sidewalks. Ms. Schaefer would like to know how to get in contact with the police when the front office isn't open.

Penny Lloyd, 104 Sussex Avenue, states there are several code violations that haven't been handled in her area recently and she would like them to be notified. Ms. Lloyd states there are a lot of untagged bicycles riding on the streets.

Ron Vermette, 115 Edgewood Street, states the sidewalk on the 100 block of Edgewood Street needs repairs, the right of way by Edgewood needs grass cut, the stop sign is missing at Edgewood and Laws intersection, 305 Walnut Street has overgrown trees, 301 Cedar is not cutting their grass, he hasn't seen the street sweeper in 6 months, there has been an increase in truck traffic on Main and Market Streets, and large trucks have been parking illegally near the Villas and 208 Walnut Street.
